SECDEF Celebrates Acquisition, Logistics Reform, Excellence Live from D. C.

PENSACOLA, Fla. -- Live from the Pentagon auditorium, Secretary of Defense, Donald H.

Rumsfeld celebrates Department of Defense (DoD) Acquisition and Logistics commitment to this year's theme, "From Reform to Excellence," during a conference Monday, Sept. 10 from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m., at Naval Air Station Pensacola Conference Center, Building 3249.

Annual Acquisition and Logistics communities take a day out of normal operations to examine and discuss initiatives. The live Pentagon video satellite broadcast, from 8:30 to 10:30 a.m., is scheduled to feature remarks by Rumsfeld as well as Vice Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, Gen. Richard B. Myers.

Following the live broadcast various local speakers will discuss procurement integrity, Depart of the Navy acquisition reform and other acquisition workforce information.
